

Hölder regularity and Gaussian estimates for the density of random first order partial differential equations.

Abstract

In this work we establish lower and upper Gaussian for the probability density of the solution of first order semi-linear partial differential equations with random coefficients. These estimates are obtained using tools of the Malliavin Calculus and the method of characteristic